Arkema successfully completes a € 200 million tap of its 2027 bond

Arkema successfully completed today a €200 million tap of its bond maturing on 20 April 2027, increasing the nominal amount of the bond to € 900 million. The bond bears a coupon of 1.50%.

This operation, which is carried out as part of the Group's long-term financing policy, enables Arkema to continue to take advantage of favorable market conditions to refinance and extend the average maturity of its financial resources.
